Suspect Charged with Criminal Sexual Contact

On March 15th Big Lake Police were notified by authorities from the Buffalo Police Department that they were initiating an investigation into a criminal sexual contact case in which the abuse occurred in both Buffalo and Big Lake. Investigator Terry Nordquist worked jointly with an Investigator from the Buffalo Police Department throughout this case.

Through the investigation it was determined a victim under that age of 13 had been sexually assaulted multiple times in both communities over a 2 year period. On March 17th an interview was undertaken with the suspect; Gregory Owen Andreotti (Age 39-Coon Rapids). During the course of the interview, Andreotti admitted sexually assaulting the victim, at times on a weekly basis during the time he lived with the victim's mother in the City of Big Lake.

Andreotti was charged by criminal complaint in Sherburne County District Court with 4 counts including; 1) 1st Degree Criminal Sexual Contact with Person under the Age of 13, 2) 1st Degree Criminal Sexual Contact Person under Ager 13, 3) 2nd Degree Criminal Sexual Contact Victim under Age 13, and 4) 2nd Degree Criminal Contact with a Victim under the Age of 13.
