Suspect Charged with Fleeing Accident Scene

On September 27 at 3:55 p.m. Big Lake Police Officer Cindy Finch was dispatched to the scene of a hit and run traffic accident on Eagle Lake Road North. Through her initial investigation, Officer Finch determined that the reporting person had been involved in a vehicle crash with a suspect identified through the investigation as Jenny Jambretz (Age 34-Big Lake). The reporting party stated that he was following Jambretz on Eagle Lake Road N. when she abruptly braked causing a collision. Following the collision, the reporting party pulled over, Jambretz fled the scene.

The reporting party attempted to follow the Jambretz while reporting the hit and run to dispatch. In following Jambretz, she left the roadway in the area of Grace Drive driving through several residential yards. Jambretz's vehicle was later located at a location in Big Lake Township. In retracing Jambretz's path, Officer Finch observed tire tracks through three separate yards in the Grace Drive Area. Investigator Rich Berg later interviewed Jambretz, during the course of the interview she admitted to fleeing the scene due to the fact she had no vehicle insurance.

Jambretz was charged by criminal complaint with; Fleeing a Crash Scene, Careless Driving, and Uninsured Driver.
